North Torrance Lady Lions Name Officers

Mrs. Dan McLayne was elected 1960-61 president of the North Torrance Lioness club at a meeting held June 6 at the Club Alondra. Elected to serve with her were Mmes. Richard Hubert, vice president; Sal Perez, recording secretary; Paul Earick, secretary; Eugene Brown, treasurer; and Alton Hieb, hair puller.

The new officers were installed at a joint dinner dance with members of the North Torrance Lions Club at the Club Alondra Saturday evening.

Mrs. Eugene Brown, chairman of the steak dinner and dance to be held June 18 at the Waleria Chicken Ranch, gave her report. Husbands will be guests at this event when dancing and swimming will be enjoyed.

A report on the Lions convention held in Catalina last month was given by Nelson Cullum and Dan McLayne. The North Torrance Lions held an open house for members and officers of other clubs.

Nelson Cullum, president of the Lions, asked for volunteers to assist with the fireworks booth in July which will be located on Crenshaw Blvd.

The next Lioness club meeting is slated for July 11.

New Mothers Club Formed

The first meeting of the Mothers' Club of the Boy Scout Troop 315, sponsored by the Moose Lodge, 785, was held Thursday evening, May 26, at the home of Mrs. Norman Rickard, 1577 West 210th St., Torrance.

This new group has been organized to aid the Scouts in financing their many activities.

The first event to be sponsored by the Mothers' Club will be a Pie Social following the Court of Honor, June 16.

The officers chosen to lead the club for the first 6 months are Mrs. Norman Rickard, president; Mrs. D. C. Reyes, vice-president; Mrs. Herbert Shattuck, secretary; Mrs. Lester Roach, treasurer; and Mrs. Ted Whisand, publicity chairman. Also attending this organizational meeting were Mmes. F. E. Corey, William Olson, Lee Polick, George Richardson, V. B. Simpson, and J. D. Turner.

The next monthly meeting will be on June 23 at the home of Mrs. Ted Whisand, 2212 Arlington Ave., Torrance. All mothers of Troop 315 Scouts are invited to attend this meeting.

Plan Program

"Creativeness" will be the theme of the program for the coming year for Eta Mu chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority. The theme was chosen at a meeting held at the home of Virginia Bry. The first program will deal with the making of hats.

Following the meeting, a candlelight ceremony was held for Laura Pesola, a new member. She was presented with a corsage and pin.

Mrs. J. Thuss Honored By Club Board

Mrs. John Thuss, retiring president of the Torrance Woman's club was honored at a luncheon given by her board Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Joseph Bay, 14 Coach Road, Rolling Hills.

The board's gift to Mrs. Thuss was a silver tray to match the silver tea and coffee service given her by the club. She was also given a beautiful corsage.

A pink cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Sid Gans, was topped by an "Oscar" for the president. This was flanked by flags representing the number of awards won by the club during the past year.

Gag gifts for her "rocking chair" days provided much merriment.

Attending the affair were Mmes. Sid Gans, Leonard Stamps, Alma C. Smith, Ervin Moudy, Rufus Sandstrom, Roy Apsey, Andrew Acampora, R. E. Moffitt, Alan S. Moore and D. J. Thomsen.

Shower For Miss Smith, Bride-elect

Miss Marian Kathryn Smith, bride-elect of Philip Osborne, was complimented at a bridal shower given on June 6 by Mrs. LeRoy Aldershof and Mrs. Don T. McCalman.

The future bride is the daughter of Mrs. Irene Ingold Smith, a resident of Torrance for many years.

The bridal theme was carried out in the decorations at the Aldershof home. Appropriate games were played and refreshments were served after Miss Smith opened her shower of gifts.

Attending the party were Mmes. Clifford Trezise, Herbert Sherwood, Loyd Cook, John Arnold, O. W. Hakanson, Robert Poole, Patrick Lupin, Jean Montange and Irene Smith.

The wedding will take place July 23 at the First Christian Church.

Installation

Alpha Xi Delta Sorority installed new officers at a dinner meeting recently at Lococo's restaurant in Manhattan Beach.

Mrs. James Stovall conducted the installation. Endowed with their duties of office were Mrs. R. J. Adler, president; Mrs. Thomas Buck, vice president; Mrs. Louis Bradvica, corresponding secretary; Mrs. James Stovall, recording secretary; Mrs. Arthur Beard, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph Columbe and Mrs. Louis Bradvica, Panhellenic representatives.

Mrs. John Luedde is membership chairman.

Alumnae Plans Party at Lido

Husbands will join Alpha Chi Omega South Bay Alumnae Club members on June 18 for sailing, swimming, and dinner at the Lido Isle home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Billings.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Auten F. Bush, 1509 Monterey Boulevard, Hermosa Beach.

Eastern Trip

Mrs. L. A. Schulwitz and children, Barbara, Leonard and Richard, 22639 Draille Dr. will leave by plane June 22 for Trenton, N. J. where they will spend six weeks with Mr. Schulwitz's mother, Mrs. Ernest Schulwitz.

HONORED VISITORS... Mr. and Mrs. Byron P. Swartz of Pierre, S.D., are here visiting their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle O'Hara on Fern Ave. A family reunion with five of their six children and all 16 grandchildren has been held to celebrate the couple's Golden Wedding Anniversary year. They are pictured with their anniversary cake at a family dinner last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Swartz were married 50 years on Feb. 22. They leave tomorrow for San Francisco and San Jose before returning to Pierre.

Registration At Marymount

Final registration for new students at Marymount College in Palos Verdes Estates was opened today, according to word received from Mother Gregory, dean of the well known women's school.

Accelerated construction on the $7,500,000 ultra modern campus on a 45-acre site overlooking the ocean has provided limited additional openings for prospective students.

Among the features of the college are exchange programs with Marymounts in France, Italy and Spain, where students may study in the native language during their junior years.

Classes will begin on the new campus on September 12.

Birthdays Celebrated

Mrs. Bertha McNeil entertained at a theatre party complimenting her cousins, Jeffrey Phillips who celebrated his 10th birthday last week and Jennifer Phillips who was eight years old Wednesday. Col. and Mrs. Eugene Phillips, 18010 Atkinson Ave., are parents of the children.

Mrs. McNeil, the honoree and their guests attended the production "The Clown Who Ran Away" at El Camino college last Saturday.

After the show, the group went to a restaurant for refreshments.

Guests were David Vorley and Allison and Debbie Steenbock.

Plan Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Phillips, 3805 W. 176th St. will spend a week beginning July 11 on vacation in Las Vegas and San Francisco.
